

I was keen to speak with you concerning an exciting opportunity for a Big Data Java Architect position I am currently seeking to join an exciting ecommerce brand located in Barcelona and was hoping you may either be interested yourself or be able to recommend someone in your network?

This well established brand is seeking a Java specialist with a proven track record in utilizing Hadoop for Big Data Projects.

I appreciate you may currently be in employment and not actively seeking new work opportunities, however should you wish to have a confidential discussion concerning this role, please kindly contact my colleague, Mark Yates, on +441202 203 310 and email a copy of your CV to mark.yates@arm.co.uk
